

PHOTOS BY HASSE FERROLD

As the summer came to an end, the national day celebrations continued at a brisk pace, with the embassies of India, Bolivia, Indonesia and Brazil all holding well-attended receptions. Among Indian ambassador Rajeev Shahare's guests at his residence on August 15 were (left: left-right) Iranian ambassador Morteza Moradian, Bulgarian ambassador Roussi Ivanov, Slovenian ambassador Tone Kajzer, Shahare and his wife, Canadian ambassador Emi Furuya, Norwegian ambassador Ingvar Havnen, Polish ambassador Henryka Moscicka-Dendys, Latvian ambassador Kaspars Ozolins, German ambassador Claus Robert Krumrei and Hungarian ambassador László Hellebrandt. Meanwhile, on the same day (centre left), Sølyst in Klampenborg was the scene for the Bolivian Embassy's celebrations where ambassador Juan Pablo Chain welcomed guests including Mexican ambassador José Ignacio Madrazo. Two days later (centre right) it was the turn of Indonesian ambassador Muhammad Ibnu Said to welcome guests to his residence in Charlottenlund. And then on September 7 (right: left-right), Brazilian ambassador Carlos Paranhos hosted proceedings at Restaurant & Vinbar in Hellerup where he was joined by Ivory Coast ambassador Mina Balde Laurent, the dean of the diplomatic corps, and Albanian ambassador Kastriot Robo