

DENMARK

INDIAN FESTIVAL '87

Indian Festival '87 was held in Copenhagen recently. Indian music and Indian food were order of the day with lots of fun too. The highlight of the programme was a filmi dance by Ulla Laurant who had been to India specially to learn the dance. Her performance was very much liked.

FOOD EXHIBITION

A food & restaurant fair was held at Bella Center, Copenhagen, recently. Among many other countries, India also participated. Mr N.R. Seshadri, Commodity, Officer Agricultural & Processed Food Products Export Development Authority, and Mr K. Prenmachandran, Assistant Director, The Marine Products Export Development Authority, came from India to exhibit the Indian food products.

At the Indian Festival '87, Ulla Laurant, who also gave an Indian dance performance, is seen in center with Frank Juul and Bjorn Weinreich. The trio enthralled audience with traditional Indian music.

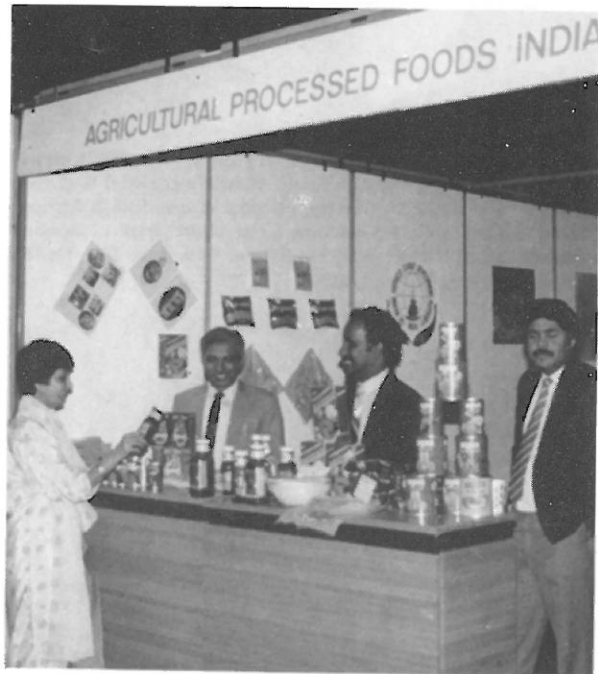

FILM WEEK

For the first time in the history of Denmark, an Indian Films Week was held with the efforts of Indian Ambassador in Denmark, Mr R.C.

Shukla. The 6 films screened were Mirch Masala, Aghaat, Massey Saheb and Shart besides the 2 other in Tamil and Malayam. The films were shown at Copenhagen, Aarhus, Odense and Faroe Islands too.

The owners of the Kashmir restaurant, Mr & Mrs Mohan Singh. Theirs was the only Indian restaurant that participated in the Food & Restaurant Exhibition.

The Indian Food Stall at the first ever Food & Restaurant Exhibition.