

COPENHAGEN

by M. M. Harwani

Gandhi Park

May 21, 1985 is the day every Indian should be proud of.

Madam Manorama Bhalla, India's Ambassador in Denmark, unveiled the statue of MAHATMA GANDHI on the lawns of Copenhagen.

This lawn was named as Gandhi Park during the visit of our late Prime Minister Mrs. Indira Gandhi, who was on an official 3-day visit to Denmark.

A large gathering of the Indian community was present on this occasion.

Pictured at the unveiling ceremony are (l-r): Madam Manorama Bhalla (Indian Ambassador in Denmark), Mr. Bent Nebelong, Cultural Mayor and Mr. H Bhalla (Indian Ambassador in Rumania).

The 500 kg bronze statue of Mahatma Gandhi in Gandhi Park.