

To celebrate Independence Day, a small community of Indians residing in Copenhagen gathered on the grounds of the Indian Embassy. Mr. R.C. Shukla, Ambassador, is seen reading the President's speech.

Dr. Bageeshwari Devi, an exponent of Jagadguru shree kripalu mahaprabhu, was recently in Copenhagen on the invitation of Bharatiya Mandir. She lectured on Bhakti in our daily life. Dr. Devi holds a doctorate in English literature and is active in India teaching the Geeta and universal brotherhood.

The Transport Corporation of India purchased a Danish cargo ship, re-named 'Bhoruka Prabhu' recently. Picture shows the crew about to board the vessel and take up their new assignments.

Seen at a cocktail party to celebrate the TCI's acquisition of a cargo freighter are (from right): Mr. Folmer, TCI Agent for Denmark, Mr. D.P. Agarwal, managing director of TCI, Mr. R.C. Shukla, Indian Ambassador to Denmark and the Den Danske Bank representative.

Mr. Sunil Kumar Harwani, son of Mr. & Mrs. Harwani of Sunico, receiving special awards along with his school leaving certificate on finishing basic school in Copenhagen. Young Sunil has enrolled in Senior School to continue his studies in Copenhagen.

Mr. Sirdhana of the Indian Embassy in Copenhagen held an introductory evening for the new attache, Mr. T.R. Puri who was on assignment to replace Mr. Bajaj. (L-r): Messrs. Sirdhana, Bajaj and Puri, and Mrs. Usha Puri, Mrs. Bajaj and Mrs. Kusum Sirdhana.