

Celebration in the air: A Sikh gatka practitioner is tumbled in the air during a religious procession Friday in Amritsar, India, on the eve of the birth anniversary of the Guru Ram Das, the fourth of the 10 gurus who established the Sikh faith in northern India hundreds of years ago. Gatka, a traditional Sikh martial art, is primarily a form of stick fighting. NARINDER NANU/GETTY-AFP