

1947: The union flag was run down for the last time in New Delhi as India gained independence from Britain. Pakistan split from India, also becoming independent.